Recruitment Rules of University of Louisiana at Lafayette Panhellenic Association

I. Statement of Positive Panhellenic Contact

We, the women of University of Louisiana at Lafayette will promote panhellenic-spirited contact with all potential new members throughout the year. Strict silence will begin at the time of the MRABA signing and last until bid distribution. No sorority member, including alumnae and new members, may communicate or live with potential new members during this period unless a situation form is signed with Panhellenic. Strict silence is defined as verbal, nonverbal, written, printed, text message and electronic communication or communicating through a third party. If potential new members live in a residence hall with a sorority member, only casual greetings and contact are permitted.

II. Statement of Adherence to NPC Unanimous Agreements and Policies Regarding Recruitment

All NPC member organizations represented at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette believe in strictly adhering to NPC Unanimous Agreements and policies. All organizations will follow these valued and non-negotiable policies during the recruitment process.

III. Statement of Values-Based Recruitment

All NPC member organizations represented at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette will promote the following practices during membership recruitment:

1. Engage in values-based conversations.
2. Choose recruitment activities and behaviors that reflect the core values of our organizations.
3. Make informed choices, based on shared values, about potential new members.
4. Educate potential new members about the values, benefits and obligations of sorority membership.

IV. Statement of Membership Recruitment Acceptance Binding Agreement (MRABA)

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette Panhellenic will uphold and use the MRABA for each potential new member interested in joining a women's fraternity, whether during formal or informal recruitment. We agree to all policies/steps pertaining to the MRABA.

V. Statement of Automatic Reset of Total

Total is the allowable chapter size as determined by the College Panhellenic.

To allow chapters to achieve parity as quickly as possible, total will be automatically adjusted every regular academic term. This is to be done no later than 72 hours following bid distribution in the academic term that primary recruitment is held and within one week (no more than seven days) from the start of the academic term(s) in which primary recruitment is not held. Total will be determined by median chapter size (MCS). E.g.: total will be set based on the size of the fourth-largest chapter in a system of seven NPC organizations.

Rules Governing Summer Membership Recruitment

1. There shall be no summer membership recruitment parties of an individual nature, yet a cooperative Panhellenic party given in communities shall be encouraged. See NPC Manual of Information. (Major Violation)
2. The cooperative Panhellenic affair which NPC recommends is not considered as individual sorority membership recruitment because it is of an educational nature and is designed to disseminate information about colleges and the whole field of fraternity life. Any woman going to any college whether that college permits summer membership recruitment or not, may attend as well as collegiate members of sororities.

3. Normal social contacts should not be disrupted in the case of longstanding friendships by prohibiting all contact between sorority women and potential new members. (Normal contact implies relatives, friends, and neighbors, those with whom you work in an office or recreation program.) However, each sorority is charged with the responsibility of seeing that unfair advantage not be taken of such contacts. (Major Violation)
4. Only Panhellenic publications should be mailed to the potential new members over the summer. Individual sorority publications may not be sent to potential new members. (Major Violation)
5. Indirect membership recruiting is prohibited. This is defined as membership recruiting by means of those not bound by NPC rules. Example: Fraternity men, Alumnae, Parents, Non-Greeks, etc.

Formal Membership Recruitment Rules

1. Formal Recruitment will be held within the first four weeks of the fall semester, following any orientation or first year experience program
2. In order to participate in Formal Membership Recruitment, a student must plan to attend the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, be a full-time student (12 hours), register with the UL Lafayette Panhellenic Council, and must pay a $50.00 Membership Recruitment Fee.
3. Each sorority must submit to Panhellenic a statement of their sorority costs by the last Panhellenic meeting of the Spring semester. These will be distributed to all potential new members on the 1st day of membership recruitment and posted to the UL Greek Affairs Website.
4. Chapters will provide an outline of each day's activities to Panhellenic. This general outline should follow budget and time frame requirements.
5. Membership Recruitment Chairs are expected to attend all meetings concerning Recruitment and are required to submit all required pieces by the stated deadlines. Failure to adhere to these requirements will result in a $ 5.00 late fee each day.
6. Sorority women who will be chosen to serve as membership recruitment counselors will be chosen by an application and interview process. There will be no contact between membership recruitment counselors and their sorority sisters beginning the first day of August and extending through Bid Day.
7. The membership recruitment team will consist of the Panhellenic Council officers, the membership recruitment counselors, and the Advisor(s).

Social Media Guidelines

- a. All members of the Panhellenic community are prohibited from “friending” potential new members, as well as accepting or rejecting offers of friendship by potential new members on any Internet communication site. The exception is potential new members with whom they have a personal connection, but only up until arrival on campus.
- b. All members of the Panhellenic community are prohibited from posting pictures with potential new members on the Internet.
- c. All members of the Panhellenic community are prohibited from posting pictures of recruitment related events and activities on social media outlets during the formal recruitment period. This includes any picture of sorority members captioned with promotion taglines (“Rush ABC”).

Rules Governing Membership Recruitment

There will be no bidding other than the preferential bidding scheduled by Panhellenic at the close of the Formal Membership Recruitment period. A bid is any oral or written invitation for membership. No promise or invitation for the potential new member to return to your house shall be made or implied during events. (Major Violation)

1. All invitations to membership recruitment events and bids must be in on time as specified on the membership recruitment schedule. A fine of $2.00 for every minute (during the first 30 minutes) the invitations are late will be assessed. A fine of $5.00 per minute will be assessed after the first 30 minutes.
2. All sororities should follow the NPC issued recommendations for release figures, extending the number of invitations recommended by UL Lafayette Panhellenic for each round of events.
3. If a sorority neglects to extend an invitation to a membership recruitment function by the specified time, or if a misunderstanding occurs, arrangements may be made through the Panhellenic office to rectify the error.
4. All invitations to membership recruitment functions must be honored by the potential new members and sororities. A potential new member must attend all membership recruitment events to which she has accepted invitations. In case of illness or other emergencies, the potential new member should notify the Panhellenic office for an official excuse. Otherwise, she will be referred to the Panhellenic Advisor for action and will be dropped from membership recruitment.
5. The knock system will be used to monitor the time of events.

3. Please make no assumptions about unstated rules. You are expected to utilize ethical behavior at all times.

Revised 4/25/16

Greek Accountability Process

G.A.P.

April 2011

Chapter Takes Responsibility

Step 1: Chapter President and Advisor meet with the Office of Greek Affairs within two (2) working days of the receipt of notification that an incident report has been filed. An incident report can be received from police, informant, or the chapter. Group discusses the Chapter's internal investigation strategy and must provide a written report to the Office of Greek Affairs within two (2) working days of meeting.

Step 2: Chapter President meets with Office of Greek Affairs to discuss information discovered in internal investigation. If at this point the Chapter accepts responsibility it is given two (2) working days to create an Enhancement Plan for the Chapter. Enhancement Plan is a document created by the Chapter President, Chapter Officers, Chapter Advisor or other members that contains self governing sanctions that would comply with any University or National/International policies.

Step 3: Chapter President and Office of Greek Affairs meet to discuss terms of Enhancement Plan. At this point the Office of Greek Affairs may choose to make adjustments to the plan.

At this point the Chapter President may choose one of two options:

- A) The Chapter President may accept the Enhancement Plan with changes by signing a Letter of Agreement with the University. This letter will include all the sanctions laid out in the Enhancement Plan as well as any changes made by the Office of Greek Affairs.
- B) The Chapter President does not accept the adjustments to the Enhancement Plan and are referred to Director of Greek Affairs for proper disposition.

Step 4: Chapter President and Advisor must educate the membership on the Letter of Agreement and make sure to follow up on any and all deadlines. Anything not done in the letter may be considered a violation of the University Student Code of Conduct resulting in more severe discipline.

Chapter Does Not Take Responsibility

Step 1: Chapter President and Advisor meets with the Office of Greek Affairs within 2 days of the receipt of notification that an incident report has been filed. An incident report can be received from police, informant, or the chapter. Group discusses the Chapter's internal investigation strategy and must provide a written report to the Office of Greek Affairs within two (2) working days of meeting.

Step 2: Chapter President meets with Office of Greek Affairs to discuss information discovered in internal investigation. If at this time the Chapter does not accept responsibility, the incident report will be turned over to the Dean of Students, Director of Student Life and Conduct, and the Director of Greek Affairs to determine if the case will go before the Greek Judicial Board. If the decision is not to go before the Greek Judicial Board then the Director of Greek Affairs will continue the investigation in collaboration with the Dean of Student Life and Conduct and Dean of Students.

Step 3: Greek Judicial Board is notified by the Director of Greek Affairs and a hearing date is set.

Step 4: Greek Judicial Board meets and determines if the Chapter is responsible or not responsible. Not responsible then charges are dismissed. Responsible sanctions are issued in the form of a Letter of Agreement.

Step 5: Chapter President and Advisor must educate the membership on the Letter of Agreement and make sure to follow up on any and all deadlines. Anything not done in the letter may be considered a violation of the University Student Code of Conduct resulting in more severe discipline.

Note:

- All hazing, sexual assault, assault, and/or academic dishonesty violations filed with the Greek Affairs Office will immediately be referred to the Director of Greek Affairs for adjudication. Recruitment violations will be referred to the respective councils.
- If at any point the chapter president, advisor, or member(s) obstructs the investigation or provides false information, the chapter may be required to meet before the Dean of Student Life and Conduct, Dean of Students, or Greek Judicial Board.
- If during the investigation the incident seems to point towards just certain members of the chapter and not the chapter as a whole, the chapter may be removed from the G.A.P.
